

FROZEN DINING CHAIR

Khaki Gray, Stainless Steel Frame

The Frozen Gray Stainless Dining Chair is one of our most popular dining chairs. With its khaki gray upholstery fabric and stainless-steel frame, it is a shoe-in for both contemporary and mid-century modern interiors because we have tweaked the vintage profile to bring it seriously clean lines. Though it appears it could have been born in the swinging seventies, this is no disco-ball baby, as it was conceived by our design team in the 21st century. We offer a number of upholstery and frame finish options in this collection, and we have an arm chair in the mix. Each of these reflects the ethos that Phillips Collection personifies: modern organic.
