BULOL SCULPTURE

Polished Bronze, MD

Sculpting the human form is an ancient art, particularly when the visages were meant to be totems that guarded tombs and crops. The Bulul Medium Polished Bronze Sculpture is our version of just such a profile but ours is not carved from wood, it is made from artisan-grade composite and finished in polished bronze to give it a smooth, modern look. The Bulul decorative accessories are available in three sizes, each of which reflects the ethos that Phillips Collection personifies: modern organic.
