

AMETHYST SCULPTURE

Assorted

A violet variation of quartz, amethyst boasts an intoxicating violet hue that has made it a staple in the world of jewelry. Rather than using it to make bracelets or necklaces, Phillips Collection aimed to go bigger with our Amethyst Sculptures. These large cuts of amethyst have been sourced from deep beneath the Earth's surface and act as the perfect accessory piece to make your home decor shine. The glassy crystalline formations encased within natural stone will add a sense of organic lustre to any interior space. These sculptures are one-of-a-kind and available in many shapes and sizes.
