Plated Black Nickel

With ribs of stainless steel that meet in the middle to mimic the arc of its namesake's wings, the Butterfly Black Nickel Wall Art is a modern wall sculpture that will bring panache to a room. The engineered steel piece with its plated black nickel finish has a surprising power, as it casts echoing shadows on the wall to bring it greater depth. We also offer this design, which is perfect for grouping in matching or contrasting finishes, in silver and gold; and in wall sculptures without mirrored glass. Each of the contemporary wall sculptures personifies the Phillips Collection ethos of modern organic.
