

REFRACTORY GLASS SCULPTURE

Green, On Base

A hunk of raw glass in a natural luminous green, the Refractory Green Glass Sculpture will introduce age-old character to a space. But the glitz it exudes and the contemporary lines of the stand on which it is displayed makes the green glass sculpture fitting for the Phillips Collection ethos of modern organic. The green sculpture is so perfect from our point of view because we left the shape in its natural state as it was harvested from the earth, the asymmetrical lines contrasting the luminous quality of the stone.
