

FLUX COFFEE TABLE

Black Wash Finish

The Flux Coffee Table is a perfect snapshot of what Phillips Collection represents. A gorgeous slice of teak wood that has been ethically sourced straight from Nature is given new purpose with help from our artisans. The result is a stunningly rugged coffee table refined with our unique black wash finish and supported by black iron legs. The organic root growth forming the body of the table tells the story of the tree it was sourced from, and the story can continue to be told through the medium of your interior design.
