

MAHOGANY SCULPTURE

Caving a piece of wood to give it a sense of movement was our M.O. with the Undulant Mahogany Sculpture, which is made of solid wood that has been refined into a piece of contemporary art. Though the profile is as polished as they come, the woodgrain brings a hint of textural style with it. The base, made of metal, is minimal to further the sleek feel of this sculpture, which personifies the Phillips Collection ethos of modern organic.
