

CAST STONE BENCH

Roman Stone

Creating a stone bench that looks like an artifact from an innovative material is no small feat. Making it so interesting that it will look just as smashing in a garden setting or a home is even more of a challenge. The fact that we've lived up to both is why we say that the ethos of the Phillips Collection brand is modern organic. Made of composite in a Roman Stone finish, the Cast Stone Bench will convincingly declare you've snapped it up from a famous garden in Great Britain and placed it in that perfect spot to make a statement.
