

JAGGED SPLASH BOWL WALL ART

Oxidized Copper Finish

Though it is made of composite rather than metal, the Splash Bowl Jagged Oxidized Copper Wall Art is a fluted decorative wall sculpture that looks as if it has been created with molten magic. The sculpture is even more powerful installed in a gallery wall arrangement, but the intricate tracery on its surface makes it powerfully beautiful when it's hung alone. We also offer similar designs in silver and in a looser pattern we call perforated. The Splash Bowls are available as decorative vessels, as well. These explosive patterns reflect the ethos that Phillips Collection personifies: modern organic.
