

WAVES SPHERE VASE

The design of the Waves Sphere Vase was inspired by the rippling patterns the wind creates on sand. Each of the pieces in our Waves family of products combines organic inspiration with high technology. Because these vases are made of composite, they are long-lasting, lightweight, and durable. The fact that the off-white vase takes on the spirit of stone, it illustrates how contemporary materials can feel natural. This circular vase definitively reflects the Phillips Collection ethos of modern organic.
