

CHOFA SCULPTURE

Silver Leaf, LG

Chofas are among the most striking elements of traditional Thai architecture. Made from hand-carved wood, they are typically used as decorative finials at the top of structural support columns. We've created our version of the undulant form in composite and given it a sheen by treating it to a silver leaf finish. The Chofa Large Silver Sculpture extends from a square black stand on a thin rib of metal. We also offer a slightly smaller size in gold. Each of these reflects the ethos that Phillips Collection personifies: modern organic.
