

ENCHANTING BUDDHA

Rust

The Enchanting Rust Buddha Sculpture exhibits the same attributes as a piece of authentic antique statuary, but the sacred totem is not carved from wood that has aged over time, it is made of composite with a surface patina that convinces the eye it was carved in the Far East eons ago. We also offer the sculpture in an ivory-hued version. Both decorative accessories are the perfect representations of the Phillips Collection ethos, modern organic, because they are beautiful, authentic, and meaningful like the fine Eastern art and artifacts we collect but with a contemporary flair.
