

FREEFORM STOOL

Faux Bois, Small

When we spot a shape that blows us away, the designers at Phillips Collection are not shy about creating a contemporary twist on the elemental symbols we see in the woods. Case in point is our Freeform Small Faux Bois Stool, which is made of composite in a lovely faux bois finish. Cast from one of our favorite Origins pieces of wood, the tree-trunk stool personifies our ethos of modern organic. By treating the surface of the tree root stool to such a warm finish, we've created a chic piece for contemporary interiors. Just imagine how perfectly it will fit into the décor of a modern apartment or a sleek coastal condo! We offer this design in a number of sizes and finishes that are equally stunning.
