

SEA URCHIN WALL ART

Sea Urchins are some of the most fascinating creatures living beneath the sea. They have an admirable knack for thriving in their environment, with over 950 species of sea urchin living in every ocean, in all climates, at any depth level. The Sea Urchin Wall Art celebrates these persisting organisms with a stunning piece of decorative wall decor featuring a herd of sea urchins in varying sizes that are huddled up together. Made of wood, the round organic forms present in the urchins play off of the straight-edged black background to create an intriguing mixture of natural shapes and modern design.
