

CRAZY CUT CONSOLE

Stainless Steel, Silver

Elegance incarnate, the Crazy Cut Console Table is a masterclass in the translation of organic curvature to modern materials. Evocative of a natural rock formation, the table is constructed with resin and enveloped in cuts of gleaming stainless steel that are delicately placed by hand. This generously sized showstopper will become a commanding presence in your space, introducing a unique blend of contemporary asymmetry that forges a path for the rest of your decor to follow. The Crazy Cut Collection contains many statement pieces that will steal the show in your future design projects, with each piece representing the textbook definition of the Phillips Collection ethos: modern organic.
