

KATHA VASE

Copper Top Coat

The Katha Copper Vase is a pear-shaped copper-colored vessel made of composite in a luminous copper finish. The decorative accessory will shine even when flowers are absent thanks to its brilliant surface. We offer the Katha in three finishes, which makes them even prettier when grouped. Combining the copper Laura and Julian vases with this version of the Katha also creates a powerful arrangement. All of these reflect the ethos the Phillips Collection personifies: modern organic.
