

FLAMINGO PLANTER

Gel Coat White

The White Flamingo Planter is the perfect home for any floral arrangement. Made of composite and sporting a durable gel coat finish, this planter contrasts beautifully with a collection of colorful flowers, whether it's placed indoors or outdoors. The repeating textured pattern lining the surface gives this planter a splash of personality, without taking too much attention away from the flora it contains. The tall, narrow form factor makes the Flamingo Planter perfect for placing it next to tables, in corners, or anywhere else your space needs a breath of life.
