

CAST SPLINTER STONE SCULPTURES

Set of 3, XL

A showstopper, the Splinter Stone Sculptures are the perfect marriage of organic and contemporary, which is what Phillips Collection is all about! These vertical sculptures are cast in artisan-grade resin from natural slabs of solid basalt stone that are born from the shifting of the tectonic plates. There is a raw beauty to the sculptures and a rich story about where they are inspired from. Most relevant to our clients is how versatile this product is. It can work in so many styles of interiors and can stand politely in the corner of a room, flank a console in an entryway, or perhaps be arranged in a repetitive series for a dramatic effect along a wall.
