

CAST WOMEN SCULPTURES

Set of 3

The female figure has been celebrated in art as long as artists have been expressing their creativity. The Gray Cast Woman Sculpture Set includes three abstracted female forms that call cubist sculptures to mind. The Splinter Stone finish brings them a vintage vibe, and the aged patina that makes the decorative sculptures look like they are made of stone was achieved when we mixed concrete and composite. We have a number of variations of these sculptures with both gray and ivory surfaces.
