

HEX WALL TILE

XL

The Hex Extra-Large Wall Tile is an exploded hexagon crafted from composite with a glossy black finish on the asymmetric frame that surrounds a brass mirror. The thin silver accent that separates the black striated frame from the mirror creates a warm/cool interplay that brings these wall sculptures heightened sophistication. Available in several sizes, these decorative tiles can be intermingled on the wall for a dramatic gallery-wall effect. Each of these reflects the ethos that Phillips Collection personifies: modern organic.
