

BARREN PLANTER

Small, Resin, Polished Aluminum Finish

The metallic finish on the Barren Small Planter convinces the eye that this garden planter with contemporary lines is made of metal but it's fashioned from composite, which our talented finish artisans have given a handsome sheen. This means it will far outlast any silver planter made from a material that could rust. The combination of sheen and texture makes this piece a shoe-in for the Phillips Collection ethos, which we call modern organic.
