

CORAL BOWL

Gel Coat White

The White Coral Bowl is a traditional looking vessel that exhibits a wonderful blend of style and utility. The repeating pattern that lines the surface of the bowl resembles the texture of a polyp of coral from the sea. Finished in a durable and weather resistant white gel coat, this bowl can be used both indoors and outdoors. The lip of the Coral Bowl is very generously sized, making it perfect for displaying centerpiece decorations in a lovely dining room or accessories for other areas of the living space.
