

BARCODE CLUB CHAIR

Black Cushion

Cuts of wood are grouped together in a staggered arrangement to give the Barcode Club Chair a wonderful sense of depth and dimension. Nested within the arms of the chair is an intricate recessed stainless steel inlay that provides an elegant juxtaposition to the dark, rustic wood adorning the frame of the chair. Wrapped within this unique frame is a soft, delicate black cushion that seamlessly pulls this piece together to create a chic, comfortable seating solution. The Barcode Club Chair also comes in a white cushion variant, as well as a coffee table. The Barcode Collection is representative of the Phillips Collection ethos: modern organic.
