

SPIRAL PLANTER

White, SM

The design of the Spiral Small White Planter was inspired by the rippling patterns the wind creates on sand. This is an example of the products we offer that combine organic inspiration with high technology. Because this decorative planter is made of composite, it is long-lasting and lightweight. The fact that the piece takes on the spirit of stone illustrates how contemporary materials can feel natural. This garden accessory definitively reflects the Phillips Collection ethos of modern organic.
