

BOULDER ROCK SCULPTURE

The Small Boulder Rock Sculpture has the convincing appearance of real natural stone, but it is actually formed from resin. The gray hue, rugged profile, and size of the piece all contribute to bestowing a sense of strength and fortitude within your interior space. This piece is considerably lighter than natural stone, allowing you to have a much easier time when finding the perfect spot or rearranging your decor. The Boulder Rock Sculpture also comes in a large variant, which creates a bold rock-themed design statement when both pieces are coupled together.
