

CHAMCHA WOOD CANTILEVERED SIDE TABLE, IRON

We may not know every design we will achieve when we are harvesting the reclaimed Golden Acacia wood we rescue from being one of Nature's finest castaways, as the furnishings often occur to us as we are working with different pieces of the massive tree trunks we find. Case in point is our family of Cantilevered occasional tables that includes this Cantilevered Ovoid Side Table, which was cut from one of our specimens. We've paired the warm woodgrain on these tables with the sleekness of black metal to heighten the contemporary feel of the design. Each of the tables in this family reflects the ethos that Phillips Collection personifies: modern organic.
