

RECLAIMED OIL DRUM WALL DISC

Individual Pieces, Assorted Colors and Depths

The Reclaimed Oil Drum Wall Disc is a circular wall disc that has been cut from a discarded metal container and reimagined into a trendy statement piece. Many different barrels are used when creating the discs, meaning each piece will exhibit hints of paint and decay from the drums they used to be. Time and weather created a distressed feel that makes these reclaimed discs textural wonders in a space. An accent wall covered with these patinated decorative accessories will create a vintage vibe in a snap. This piece of edgy wall art reflects the modern organic ethos that Phillips Collection personifies.
