

FREEFORM STONE STOOL

Assorted

The Freeform Stone Stool by Phillips Collection is a raw, natural slab of stone that has been smoothed at the top to provide ample and comfortable seating. A stunning elemental design statement, this stool will contribute a primal atmosphere to your interior space. Due to the durable nature of stone, this stool can easily stand up to the harsh elements when used outside. Each Freeform Stone Stool is a one-of-a-kind work of organic art; therefore your piece may vary in style and coloration, giving your piece a unique sense of character.
