

CRUMPLED OIL DRUM PEDESTAL

Wood Top

With elements like our Reclaimed Oil Drum Pedestal, which is reshaped from an oil drum we rescued from a landfill, we take a rugged material and turn it into a design statement. The abstract pattern of mottling and drifts of subtle coloring along its surface is authentic to the aged metal from which this brown pedestal is made. We've given it an extra dose of personality with the wood top that fits smartly into place. This metal pedestal reflects the ethos that Phillips Collection personifies: modern organic.
