

STICK BOWL

Short, Black

Many of our products are made in countries in which it is ingrained in craftspeople to do everything possible not to waste natural resources. Taking small limbs; whittling them into clean, contemporary building blocks; fastening them into decorative bowls; and painting them a sleek black is an exercise in great patience that results in earthy products with modern lines. This puts the Short Black Stick Bowl at the heart of the Phillips Collection ethos, which we call modern organic.
