

GIRL OWL

Carved Animal

Reflecting the fact that this animal is a creature of the night, the Girl Owl Sculpture has a sleepy expression that adds a charming element to a space. The heavily textured piece has been carved from wood and left unsanded so that its surface makes a powerful statement as a natural material. Add whimsy to a space with this small sculpture that will slip easily onto a shelf or hold its own in a vignette on any table. The piece is one of our designs that will work wonderfully in a modern farmhouse interior; it also reflects the Phillips Collection ethos of modern organic.
