

TEAK FENCE SCULPTURE

Set of 3

Carefully selected end-cuts of teak wood are given new life in the Teak Fence Sculpture Set, which includes three slender sculptures. We do not change the wood from its original form when we source it; in fact, this illustrates how our stance at Phillips Collection is to use every piece of wood we find, even when others would view them as castaways. The fact that they are affixed to stone bases that add an additional natural element to the organic look, these splinters have truly become works of art.
