

CORE COFFEE TABLE

Utilizing the dense, solid cross section from the heart of a tree, our Natural Core Coffee Tables are an ode to the strength and scale of Mother Nature's most important monuments. These tables are one solid piece and feature minimal organic cracks. As a result, the Core Coffee Tables have an excess of surface space, while also providing a breathtaking view of the natural grain. While simple in concept, the Core collection exudes a sense of power and strength that truly aligns it with the Phillips collection ethos: modern organic.
