

LYCHEE ROOT COFFEE TABLE

Square

Lychee Wood is a hardy, heavy wood that we ethically source from southeast Asia. Known for the sporadic shape of the root, as well as its distinctive reddish hue, Phillips Collection jumped at the opportunity to create something very special with this unique unearthed root. The Natural Lychee Root Coffee Table boasts a wild, untamed form factor that can only be found in Nature. The result is a strapping, powerful piece that fits right in with the Phillips Collection ethos: modern organic.
