

FREEFORM BENCH

Natural

The Natural Freeform Bench is a show-stopping piece of art directly from the Earth itself. Crafted from chamcha wood and boasting erratic shapes only found in Nature, these benches are guaranteed to become the conversation starter of your space. The rich, brown grain shows a delightful interplay with the blonde sap line to create a bold yet inviting seating solution. Our Freeform Benches are one-of-a-kind pieces that vary in shape and size, making them fit quite comfortably within the Phillips Collection ethos: modern organic.
