

STACKED WALL RING

Bleached, LG

With a hint of tribal chic, the Large Stacked-Ring Wood Wall Art was created when circlets of chamcha wood were carved and slid onto the frame in a process similar to how a necklace would be made. This illustrates not only the talent of our design team to come up with such unusual stylistic statements, it also proves the dexterity with which our craftspeople execute their work. We also offer this decorative accent in small and medium sizes, and we have decorative mirrors in small and medium sizes. Each of these reflects the ethos that Phillips Collection personifies: modern organic.
