

CHAIN WALL ART

Chamcha Wood, Gray Stone Finish

The perfect example of how we use even the smallest pieces of natural wood we source, the Chain Gray Chamcha Wood Wall Art is a sculptural piece created from rings of golden acacia wood that are sanded and treated to a gray stone finish to create an organically shaped wall panel. Though many product designers would see these small pieces of wood as useless castaways, we see them as building blocks that create dynamic elements for interiors. This wall sculpture personifies the modern organic ethos for which Phillips Collection is renowned.
