

ABSTRACT FIGURE ON BLEACHED WOOD BASE

Bronze Finish, Left Arm Down

The Waving Seated Figure will fast become one of your favorite playful decorative accessories. Made of metal in a bronze finish, the waving figure sits on a ball of wood that has been bleached to make this decorative sculpture a study in contrasts. The aged patina on the surface of the sculpture may fool the eye into thinking this is a vintage tabletop piece but it's brand new, and is a testament to our skilled finish artisans. Wherever you place this whimsical sculpture, it will be a conversation starter, whether it sits in its spot in the room alone or in tandem with the other figures in this series, which include a pointing figure and a reaching figure. Each of these reflects the ethos that Phillips Collection personifies: modern organic.
