

ABSTRACT WIRE MAN FLOOR SCULPTURE

SM

Abstracting the human form has been a fascination for artists since burnt sticks created charcoal that was used to draw on cave walls. Our artisans have created our own industrial chic version with the Small Abstract Wire Man Floor Sculpture. At 68-inches tall, the mummy-like shape packs an edgy wallop. It takes great patience and skill to bend wire so fluidly, particularly when the results are so contemporary, which makes this metal sculpture perfect for the Phillips Collection ethos of modern organic. We offer this design in a larger size.
