

LIGHTNING VASE

Mango Wood, Tall

Carved from natural solid wood, the Lightning Short-Neck Bottle is one of a number of shapes in the Lightning Collection. The beautiful fractal pattern was created when our skilled artisans positioned a liquid material on the wood and placed two electrodes at each end. The patterns that emerged pay homage to the tree's DNA. The lightning patterns that run along the surfaces of these decorative wood vessels will bring powerful organic texture to a space. Place one as the centerpiece of a tabletop tableau in a modern living room or slide it into a shelf in a transitional den and you'll see just how versatile this round decorative accent can be. We offer several shapes in vases and bottles in this collection, each of which reflects the ethos that Phillips Collection personifies: modern organic.
